ASTIGMATISM.

What it is, and How Corrected.

Astigmatism or Irregular Vision is one of the most common of all the refractive errors. It is due to the irregular curvature of the cornea.
Of course no instrument is sufficient to correct it, but in the hands of a thoroughly efficient and competent eye specialist the ophthalmometer reveals the exact condition of the eye in a way that nothing else can. If your eyes need attention have DR. J. T.
JOHNSON put them under this wonderful instrument. Office hours 9:30

ODELL HARDWARE COMPANY.

The Elegant Business Methods of This Sterling Firm.

Greensboro feels proud of her many sterling business firms, and the following letter written by a correspondent of the Charlotte Observer, descriptive of the most commendable methods employed by the Odell Hardware Co., of this city, in the treatment of their employees, is reproduced with pleasure:

In conversation with Mr. Ireland, of the Odell Hardware Co. of Greensboro, he told me of their rules with regard to their employees, which I wish to give to other business men. When they employ a man or boy it is stipulated that he is not to swear or smoke in or about their place of business, and he is not to drink intoxicating liquors at all. If caught associating with those of questionable character he gets a discharge at once. Their position is that if he cannot find suitable associates among their forty-five employees and all the other moral men in town, then there is something wrong with him and they do not want such a man. When they employ a man they ascertain what church he belongs to, and notify the pastor of that church, and expect him to look after the new comer. They have no cash system, nor cashier, but put a man on his honor in handling the cash.

To show you how it works: They found one of their young men drinking just a little, and fired him, and wrote his parents the cause. In a short time they (the parents) wrote to thank the company for being so positive with their boy, saying that the company had by their strict rules taught the young man a lesson that they had never been able to do, i. e., that he could not drink whiskey and hold his job with good people. Another thing, when their men want credit, they get it when it is known that they work for Odell & Co., because a man who fails to pay his bills cannot stay with them; for they pay their men good salaries, and there is no excuse except extravagance for their not paying their bills.

I am writing from memory, and may have left out some important item, but it seems to me that these are good rules, and if adopted by business men generally would be of incalculable benefit to young men in restraining them from evil habits and helping them to build characters that are worth something to the world. While the young man is benefited, the merchant is also, as it secures for them the very best class of help—help that he can rely on when absent from his business.

I was astonished at the progress that Greensboro has made within the last four or five years; it is on a big boom. L. W. D.

A Good Ticket.

Editor Telegram:—We need a young, enterprising mayor and a board of level-headed business men for our progressive city. Now is a critical time in the history of Greensboro, and no city in the state has a brighter future.
I love our little city, and never fail to tell of its growth and progressiveness to outsiders, and I am exceedingly anxious that we take no step backward. Let us nominate and elect the Hon. Zebulon Vance Taylor, and I will feel that he has made the best most public-spirited mayor we have ever had. He has spent his time and his own money to advance the city's interests, and has been in every way a most excellent officer. I have talked with many citizens, and find that his renomination will be most acceptable.
The second ward wishes to nominate the two Jims for aldermen, J. M. Hendrix and J. W. Landruth.

Second Ward.

Mayor Taylor Endorsed.

Editor Telegram:—I do not believe the Fifth ward voters will so soon forget the untiring energy displayed by Mayor Taylor in trying to relieve the suffering caused by the severe weather of the past winter. So far as my memory serves me, I do not think we have had a mayor in ten years who has done more to help the needy than he. Not only that, he has used his utmost endeavors to bring to our city manufacturing enterprises and to foster every legitimate and taking for the betterment of our good city. There is a good deal said about wanting the administration men for mayor and aldermen; but a man who does his best to feed the hungry, clothe the naked, and advance the material prosperity of our city is broad enough for me.

Fifth Ward Voter

Let Him Be Retained.

Mr. Editor:—Knowing something of the time and labor that our present mayor, Mr. Taylor, has given to the city since his election, and realizing that he is a broad and liberal minded, progressive young man, and that he will, if elected, administer the affairs of the city without regard to any class or section, we would suggest that the citizens of our city would make a grave mistake in not electing him as his own successor. His friends in the Sixth ward are exceedingly anxious to see him retained in his present position. Voter.

McARTHUR AT CALUMPT.

The Americans Before The City
Preparing For The Attack.

LAWTON'S COLUMN ON A MARCH

For Norzgary—General Hale Threatens The Enemy's Flanks—This Is The Situation.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Manila, April 25.—Although the sturdy condition of the ground, on account of the rain storm, seriously impeded the progress of Lawton's column which left San Jose today, it is expected to reach Norzgary this evening.

Col. Sumner is marching across from Bocavine with two battalions each of the Oregon and Minnesota regiments, three troops of cavalry and two guns.
In the meantime McArthur's division is in front of Calumpit, preparing to begin the attack, and Gen. Hale threatens the enemy's flanks.

A number of rebels between Novaliches and Latema have persistently interfered with the Americans' telegraphic communication, but the signal corps has repaired the breaks and captured several prisoners.

The armored launch Rupidan this morning discovered a small body of rebels at Toklay. A few shots scattered them and drove them inland from the lake.

SIX AMERICANS KILLED.

Washington, April 25.—Oils cables that Hale's brigade, of McArthur's division, moved down the right bank of the Quinua river yesterday, in the vicinity of Calumpit. He is now joined by Wheaton's brigade on the left bank.
Hale encountered fierce opposition, but succeeded in driving the enemy with heavy loss. Our loss was six killed and twelve wounded.

The division has now invested Calumpit, which will be taken today.
Lawton will reach Norzgary this evening, where he will be joined by a center column from Bocavine.

The extreme heat, rains, high streams and bad roads made the march very difficult.

THE FIRE DEPARTMENT

Held The Annual Meeting Last Night.
Officers Elected.

The annual meeting of the Greensboro Volunteer Fire Department was held last night in firemen's hall. After the discussion of several matters of more or less importance the election of officers for the ensuing year was taken up. J. Henry Phipps, of South Side Hose Company No. 4, was recommended for chief, defeating former Chief Pleasants by two votes. Ex-Chief Jos. J. Stone, resigned, was recommended for assistant chief. E.
L. Clarke was re-elected secretary and Frank C. Boyles, treasurer. The chief and assistant chief, recommended by the firemen will be appointed by the mayor.

The committee appointed to select a running track for the tournament was asked to reconsider its selection. The committee a few days ago selected a section of Summit avenue as a slight grade and the firemen objected to it on the grounds that it would be dangerous to jump off a wagon or truck running at full speed and that the horses would be unable to stop the apparatus when desired. It is probable that the committee will recommend running upgrade.

LUCID, THOUGHTFUL, ELOQUENT.

The Address of Prof. P. P. Claxton
Before The O. R. Students.

Oak Ridge, April 24, '99.
Prof. P. P. Claxton lectured before the students here Saturday night on "Some Problems in the Development of North Carolina and their Solution." For over an hour he held his audience in rapt attention by one of the most interesting, lucid, thoughtful and eloquent speeches ever delivered here.

He portrayed the condition of North Carolina and her failure to rise to the opportunities her soil, climate and natural resources offered. He analyzed her failures and suggested as a remedy, more thorough education of her people.

It would be difficult to describe to your readers this very stirring and most address. It should be made before every body of students in the state. Much good would no doubt result, if it could be done. The time has passed when it is profitable to indulge in indiscriminate praise of the state and to claim great praise because "the first white baby girl (God bless her) was born in North Carolina" as Gen. Leach used to say. A little just criticism interspersed with a thoughtful effort as to how to better our condition is what is now needed.

Yours, Zero.

DISASTER TO THE AMERICANS.

Seven of Our Troops Killed and Forty-Two Wounded.

Manila, April 25.—In an encounter with the Filipinos today near Quigua, about four miles northeast of Malolos, seven Americans were killed and forty-two were wounded.

The following were killed:
Col. John M. Stoenburg, of the First Nebraska regiment, formerly of the Sixth regiment.
Lieutenant Lester E. Sisson, of the same regiment.
Two privates of the Nebraska regiment.

Three privates of the Fourth cavalry.

Most of the wounded belong to the First Nebraska regiment. The Filipinos retreated with small loss.

The engagement developed into a disastrous, though successful, fight.
The insurgents had a horseshoe trench about a mile long, encircling a rice field, on the edge of a wood. Major Bell, with forty cavalrymen, encountered a strong outpost. One of his men was killed and five were wounded by a volley.

The Americans retired, carrying their wounded, under fire and with great difficulty, being closely pursued, a fog enabling the enemy to creep up to them.

Two men who were carrying a comrade were shot in the arms, but they continued with their burden. Captain Bell sent for reinforcements to rescue the body of the killed cavalrymen, and a battalion of the Nebraska regiment, under Major Mufford, arrived and advanced until checked by volleys from enemy's trenches.

The Americans lay about 80 yards from the trenches, behind rice furrows under fire, for two hours. Several men were sunstruck, one dying from the effects of the heat, as they lay there waiting for the artillery to come up. Finally the Second battalion arrived and then Colonel Stoenburg, who had spent the night with his family at Manila, came up in the field.
The men immediately recognized him and raised a cheer.

Col. Stoenburg, deciding to charge as the best way out of the difficulty, led the attack at the head of his regiment. He fell with a bullet in his breast, dying instantly, about 200 yards from the breastworks.

In the meantime the artillery had arrived and shelled the trenches. The Filipinos stood stiff until the Nebraska troops were right on the trenches, and then they bolted to the second line of entrenchments, a mile back.

The Nebraska regiment lost two privates killed and had many wounded, including two lieutenants. The Utah regiment had one officer and three men wounded.

Thirteen dead Filipinos were found in the trench. Their loss was comparatively small on account of their safe shelter.

The Americans carried the second trench with small loss, and are holding the town tonight.

Col. Stoenburg had won a reputation as one of the bravest fighters in the army. He always led his regiment and had achieved remarkable popularity with his men since the war began, although, during his first colonial, the volunteers, who were not used to the rigid discipline of the regular troops, thought him a hard officer.

The loss of the Nebraska regiment in the campaign is the greatest sustained by any regiment, and today's disaster has greatly saddened officers and men, who promise to take fierce vengeance in the next fight.

Our Educators.

Dr. C. D. Melver will return tonight from an extended trip in the north, where he has been getting information in regard to the new gymnasium to be built at the Normal.

Dr. and Mrs. Dred Peacock sail tomorrow from Southampton, England, homeward-bound. Mrs. John Peacock, of St. Louis, who sailed with them from New York, will remain abroad. It is about a seven days' trip from Southampton to New York.

You'll Be Welcome There.

Messrs. E. M. Caldwell & Bro. announce that their stock is large and complete, and entirely ready for the inspection of the public. All of their friends have a cordial invitation to call around at any time. Polite and accommodating clerks are ever in attendance.

Why He Won't Do.

I see in the Telegram the name of T.
T. Brooks mentioned as a suitable man for Alderman. He won't do. He opposes compulsory vaccination, or compulsory anything else. Trot out some other man, Mr. "Voter."

Third Ward.

Started This Morning.

The iron furnace was fired up this morning, and the manufacture of iron is now added to Greensboro's collection of industries. If everything works well the furnace will not be allowed to cool. Manager Noble is keeping a watchful eye on all the machinery, and if any defects are discovered they will be repaired at once.

A TERRIBLE OCCURRENCE.

Chewing-gum Factory at Philadelphia Collapses.

MANY KILLED AND INJURED.

Four Hundred Girls Employed and Scarcely One Escaped Unhurt—
The Ruins Take Fire.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Philadelphia, April 25.—A terrible explosion has just occurred in the northwestern part of the city. The boiler in the chewing-gum factory of Frank H. Fleet was very large and exploded, tearing down the supports of the building, and caused the entire structure to collapse. Four hundred girls were employed and scarcely one escaped unhurt. So many are injured that the druggists and physicians for miles around have more than they can attend to. All the ambulances of the city hospital have been summoned to the scene.

Many employees are believed to be killed. Two dead bodies have already been taken from the ruins, and six seriously injured have been conveyed to the hospitals.

A number of other surrounding buildings are wrecked. Fire started after the collapse and the flames are so fierce that five alarms have been sounded.

NOT SO BAD AS THOUGHT.

Philadelphia, April 25.—Two bodies have been recovered up to 11 o'clock.
One was burned to a crisp. Another was blown through the roof and found a hundred feet away. Over a dozen injured have been removed to hospitals. The employees say they do not believe many employees were in the building at the time of the explosion.

Surrounding buildings for more than a block were injured, and the interior of some of those close by were wrecked to such an extent that a total loss to the property is the result.

WORK OF A FIEND.

Woman Burned to Death by a Drunken Husband.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Westchester, Pa., April 25.—John Halpin, of Coatesville, burned his wife to death in a most horrible manner today. The couple had quarreled about a bucket of water. Halpin was intoxicated, and struck his wife, then poured the contents of an oil can upon her clothing and fired it with a match.

SURE ENOUGH MUDDLE.

Judge Timberlake Decides in Favor of Greene County Fusion Officers.

Snow Hill, N. C., April 24.—Judge Timberlake has at last rendered a decision in the contested election cases of Greene county. In a very lengthy opinion he holds that the fusionists, having the certificates of election, and therefore the prima facie title to the offices, are entitled to hold and exercise the duties of their respective offices until a decision against them in an action of quo warranto. As a fact, he finds that the democratic officers had a majority of the votes cast, as shown by the recent order by Judge Robinson. But he holds that the recount was void and gave them no color of title to the offices. He has therefore issued a peremptory mandamus restoring the present Democratic officers from exercising the duties of their offices, in direct opposition to the act of the legislature, forbidding any judge from issuing an injunction in any civil action which involves the title to an office during the pending of the action.

The case has been appealed to the supreme court, and will come up at the fall term. Meanwhile the Democrats continue to hold the offices.

The postmaster here has received a letter from the postmaster general instructing him to deliver all mail that is directed to county offices to the fusion officials until the courts decide who is entitled to the offices.—Special to the News and Observer.

To The Hospital.

Mr. J. H. Harris, who has been sick for some time at the home of his father-in-law, Capt. E. H. Smith on King street, left last night for Baltimore to enter St. Joseph's Hospital for treatment. He was accompanied by Capt.
E. H. Smith from whom a telegram was received this afternoon saying Mr. Harris had stood the trip remarkably well. Mr. Harris is an old citizen of Greensboro and has many warm friends here who hope for his entire recovery.

The Eagle Dramatic Club.

Mr. W. H. Rees, the clever and courtly manager of the Eagle Dramatic Club, informs us that the company has something in store for the public which will be made known about June 1. The cast, though not yet completed, is strong and the people are promised something in the nature of a pleasant surprise.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

THE FIREMEN'S TOURNAMENT.

Meeting Held Last Night to Perfect
The Arrangements.

A meeting was held last night at the Greensboro National bank by the chairmen of the different committees appointed to aid in making the firemen's tournament a grand success.
Messrs. Elam, Ireland, Taylor, Elling-ton, C. M. Vanstory, and Wright were present. Mr. Elam showed the importance of getting all the people of Greensboro interested in this matter. Efforts will be made to get reduced railroad rates to induce people to come and see the greatest tournament ever held in North Carolina. Steps will be taken to amuse, entertain and instruct all who may visit the Gate City of Flowers on this gala occasion. Bicycle and horse races, tennis, balloon ascensions, brass bands, theatrical entertainments, trade displays, &c., will entertain all who attend.

The following committees were appointed:
Horse racing: J. F. Jordan, chairman; J. J. Nelson, R. M. Rees, C. P.
Vanstory, Dr. J. T. J. Battle and J.
H. Walsh.

Tennis: Lee Wharton, chairman;

Gattis-Kilgo Case.

Oxford, N. C., April 24—Court opens here today. Judge Bryan and Solli-dor Brooks have already arrived.

There is no case of special importance except the slander suit of Rev. Mr.
Gattis for $100,000 against Kilgo, Duke and Odell, which is set on the docket for Friday, when it will be argued on demurrer.

Too Much For Him.

It is evidently one thing to work without knowing how much we do and another thing to have our labors mapped out before us in detail. For several months a business house in this city has enjoyed the ministrations of an unusually faithful colored janitor. Always prompt and faithful, morning in the discharge of his various duties, Tom was a great favorite with the firm, and the prospect was that he would abide with them many years.

One day it occurred to the senior partner that a little more system in Tom's routine would be advisable and perhaps render his work a trifle easier, so he wrote out in plain characters an outline of the chores Tom had been doing every week, arranged perhaps with more convenience to the firm and to Tom. Unfortunately Tom could not read, so the list was given to another man employed on rougher work, with instructions to read it to Tom and explain to him each day's prescribed duties.

When the schedule was read to Tom, however, the effect was astonishing and disastrous. He listened quietly, but his eyes grew bigger and his black wool seemed to bristle on his head. At the end he reached for his cap and said to the porter: "Good gracious! I ain' goin' to do all that work." Then he walked out and hasn't been seen since.—Indianapolis Journal.

Tricked the Vicious Camel.

A valuable camel working in an oil mill in Arizona was beaten by its driver.

Seeing that the camel had treasured up the injury and was only waiting a favorable chance for revenge, the driver kept a strict watch upon the animal.

Time passed away. The camel, knowing that it was watched, was quiet and obedient, and the driver began to think that the beating was forgotten, when a corner night, after several months had gone by, the man was sleeping on a raised platform in the mill, while, as is customary, the camel was stabled in a corner.

Happening to awake, the driver saw by the bright moonlight that when all was quiet the animal looked cautiously around, rose softly and, stealing toward a spot where a bundle of clothes and a torn blanket were carelessly on the ground resembled a sleeping figure, cast itself with violence upon them, rolling with all its weight and tearing them most viciously with its teeth.

Satisfied that its revenge was complete, the camel was retreating to its corner when the driver sat up and spoke. At the sound of his voice and realizing the mistake it had made, the animal was so mortified at the failure and discovery of its scheme that it dashed its head against the wall and died on the spot.

Diplomacy.

"And so, Esau, Berkeleigh is going to marry that old, decrepit fellow just because he has a lot of money?"

"Oh, no, that isn't the reason. She's going to marry him because her parents, by throwing out clever hints, succeeded in making her believe they didn't want her to have him."—Chicago News.

It Is Pathetic, Nevertheless.

The headline "Died Pennyless" loses nine-tenths of its pathos when one reflects that a minute after death the victim of such circumstances is just as well off as if he had died in possession of a hundred millions.—Indianapolis Journal.

medicine tones up the whole system, acts as a stimulant to liver and kid-

Key to the Situation

Is This: One might as well try to lift themselves in a basket as to try to undersell us. Cheapest Store on Earth is the combination that unlocks the pocketbooks of the masses. Cash has been and is still the axle grease of our business. With it we scoop in panic merchants and manufacturers of their entire stocks, often at less than the cost of making. This is the reason we are always throwing on the market Shoes, Clothing, Dry Goods, Gent's Furnishings, Hats and Notions, etc., at such astonishing low prices. Rushed with business you see from a whirlwind of bargains that is constantly being driven in all the time. Listen: Silks 15c up; $1 quality 50c; checked dimities 24c;

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Col. W. H. Osborn returned to Raleigh at noon today.

Miss Bessie Menter, of High Point, is visiting in the city.

Hats—the celebrated Knox—all styles and sizes. Read Vanstory's ad today.

Hudson-on-the-hill changes his ad today. Read what he has to offer for tomorrow.

Lee Cartland returned last night from High Point, where he has been for a few days.

Miss Mabel Hall, of Salisbury, arrived this morning to spend a few days visiting her sister Mrs. D. R. Harry.

Some one has suggested that doctor and drug bills can be saved if those who own wells will clean them out at this time of the year.

Mrs. Seales left at noon today for Danville to visit her daughter, Mrs. H. W. Cobb. She was accompanied by Miss Annie Sneed.

Rev. W. L. Grisom returned home last night. He has been presiding at quarterly conferences in the Rutherford and Forest City circuits.

W. M. Kersh, who has been getting the data for a directory here, left this morning for Durham. The Greensboro directory will be ready for delivery in a short while.

Johnson & Dorsett call your attention to the fact that they have just opened a new stock of the celebrated Ziegler Bros' fine shoes and slippers, and invite you to call.

That boy of yours needs clothes that will resist the hard usage to which they will be subjected. Just this kind are discussed in the ad of Rankin, Chisholm, Stroud & Rees.

Officer Scott is a hustler. Saturday he arrested a man for stealing corn, Sunday he pulled one for drinking corn and yesterday, one for selling corn without license. He is now hunting the man who planted the corn.

Have you informed yourself as to the "War of the Roses," and which side you will choose—white or red? As well as which won in history—the white rose of the house of York, or the red rose of the house of Lancaster.

Our "War of the Roses" will not be one of force of arms nor yet of words, or of supremacy of ability, but only a pleasurable strife between two societies as to which can make the most money for a common object—for St. Barnabas church.

Attractive "catchy" music is what Prof. Brown kindly promises the ladies as offset to their peaceful "War of the Roses," to be enacted at McAdoo hall tomorrow evening. Free admission. Salads, coffee, ices and cakes at usual prices.

Editor Telegram:—We believe that Mr. Taylor has the best interests of Greensboro at heart, and is ambitious for its prosperity, and with the energy of youth will give the city a good administration. Let him succeed himself.

Speaking of Chickens.

Anyone not in the business would be surprised to know the number of chickens and eggs shipped through Greensboro from Wilkesboro, Mt. Airy, Sanford and intermediate points, to the northern markets. The Southern Express Co. ships an average of 100 crates or 2,500 chickens daily or nearly a million yearly. At 15 cents this would amount to $150,000. As for eggs, strange to say, they are even more numerous than chickens. Fifty crates daily, 30 dozen to the crate, over six million yearly, 124 cents a dozen, nearly $100,000. Verily, the pullet and hen berry business is considerable in this section and it looks like one or the other would have to give out.

The Strawberry Movement.

About 300 crates of strawberries were shipped to the northern markets yesterday from points on the Wilmington and Weldon railroad. A hundred crates were shipped from stations on the Atlantic and Yadkin.

It seems that Chadbourne is to be the first of the strawberry producing plants to ship a refrigerator car load of berries. The C. F. T. Company will move a car load of berries from there tomorrow.

The quotations from the northern markets last night for strawberries was 30 cents per quart.—Wilmington Messenger.

For Mayor.

Editor Telegram:—The present incumbent has been active, progressive, and vigilant and Greensboro cannot do better than nominate Z. V. Taylor, as he is just the kind of man we need. Third Ward.

Get a pair for the little folks. You can buy infant's Dongola, Tan and Patent Leather sandal slippers for 40, 50, 65 and 75 cents a pair at Thacker & Brockmann's. Larger sizes for children and misses in the same proportion. We make a specialty of children's and infant shoes and carry the largest assortment in the city.

This Is Not What We Say,

But it is said by our patrons, again and again we hear it: "Always something new at Bendheim's." This is as it should be. Progressive merchants that we are, we have "always something new" hence the popularity we enjoy, hence the attraction to our store. Our immense output necessitates a constant inlet, and with such facilities for daily supplies our customers have always some new attraction—some sparkling novelty to arrest attention.

An additional allurements is the power of price, which in all cases savors of economy.
